Subject: Application n° 09/857,099: missing requirements accomplished

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have received a letter dated 10/25/2002 asking me to fulfil some missing requirements:

- Translation of the application into English.
- Processing fee.
- Oath or declaration of the inventor.

On the other hand, in that letter of 10/25/2002 there is a reference to a precedent letter dated 07/06/2001, which supposedly was sent to me from the US-PTO. However, no such letter has ever been received at my address. I would like to kindly ask your office to only use registered air mail for further communications, since it is more reliable.

Please, find enclosed the following documents:

1. Declaration for utility or design patent application (2 pages).
2. Credit card payment form, authorising a charge of $195 = $65 + $130 (1 page).
3. A copy of the letter of 10/25/2002, requiring me to submit all of this (3 pages).
4. Translation of the application into English (22 pages plus 6 pages for drawings). Please, note that pages 17 and 18 are the claims as originally filed (11/19/1999); pages 19 and 20 are the claims as modified under article 19. After the International Preliminary Examination of the application was performed, a new more precise and restrictive writing form was given to the claims, avoiding some errors that had arisen when performing the translation into English. This new writing was submitted to enter into the European phase (via Euro-PCT). This last writing for the claims is the preferred one, thus it has also been amended for the United States application. Accordingly three more pages have been added including all the claims, in which a parenthetical expression follows the claim number indicating the status of the claim when it has been amended. For your convenience, a copy of the modified claims in which each change is clearly marked using red colour has also been enclosed.

Should there be any other action to be performed on my side, please tell it to me by phone, email, fax or whatever you may prefer. Thank you so much for it!

Best regards,

Fernando J. Marcos Alba
